MOOCS – Massive Open Online Classes

Mary Evelyn Tucker and John Grim, Yale University, are offering three six-week online courses. Brian Thomas Swimme provides introductory comments. They are available in English and in Chinese.

These MOOCs are available on Coursera to anyone, anywhere on the planet. The courses can be taken as a series or independently. Learners may audit these courses FREE OF CHARGE. The courses do not have to be completed within the six week period; rather, learners may take the classes and finish at their own pace.

Courses:

- Journey of the Universe: The Unfolding of Life (film & book)
